Clear Mountain Bank hires Senior Vice President of Credit Administration

Bruceton Mills, W.Va., April 16, 2010 – Clear Mountain Bank has announced the hiring of Gregory Adkins as senior vice president of credit administration. In his position, Adkins will be responsible for managing the total loan portfolio for the bank, including credit quality assurance and developing lending policies and procedures.

Adkins brings to Clear Mountain Bank more than 24 years experience in financial services and accounting. He has worked previously as a public accountant and has experience in numerous capacities in the banking industry, including corporate auditor, vice president commercial lending, and regional president.

A native of Alum Creek, Adkins graduated from West Virginia State College with a bachelor's degree in business administration and obtained a masters degree in accounting from Liberty University. Adkins is also a certified public accountant.

“Greg has a tremendous amount of experience in lending and accounting, which will greatly benefit Clear Mountain Bank and our customers,” said Brian F. Thomas, president and CEO. “We’re fortunate to have Greg join our organization.”

Adkins can be reached at Clear Mountain Bank’s Bruceton Mills office at 160 Morgantown Street in Bruceton Mills, or by calling 304-379-2265.
